1 GIRLS HOSTEL

S.P.B. Patel College of Engineering is dedicated to gender equity, ensuring safety with separate facilities and CCTV surveillance. An Internal Complaints Committee transparently addresses grievances, fostering inclusivity. Diverse event participation is encouraged, supported by scholarships like the AICTE Pragati Scheme, empowering female students for academic success and advancement.

Common Girls Room

Prof. Chitralekha Nahar's remarkable triumph, securing the 1st prize in the Dronacharya Award, stands as a powerful testament to female empowerment and gender equity at S.P.B. Patel Engineering College. Breaking barriers as a female faculty member, she fearlessly entered the competition and emerged victorious, showcasing the undeniable strength and capability of women in engineering. Her achievement not only exemplifies individual excellence but also underscores the college's commitment to fostering an environment where all genders are equally encouraged and supported to pursue their aspirations.

10 Scholarship for Girls

- S.P.B. Patel Engineering College is committed to promoting gender equity and empowering female students in pursuing higher education.
- The college offers special scholarships for girls through the AICTE Pragati Scheme.
- Pragati Scheme provides financial assistance to girl students pursuing higher education at the degree and diploma levels.
- Eligibility criteria include admission to AICTE-approved institutions and courses, with a maximum of two girl children per family and a total family income of less than Rs. 8 lakh per annum.
- This initiative aims to support and encourage female students in their academic endeavors, fostering gender inclusivity and diversity within the engineering community.
